

Senior Food Technology

From Year 9 onwards, students use a range of catering equipment to enhance their knowledge and skills. The senior courses are focused on commercial learning to assist students to gain entrance into career pathways within the catering and hospitality industries.

