

Year 7 Wood Technology

During this project students will develop practical skills and confidence using a range of tools in the workshop. They will follow the design process and identify a stakeholder and their needs in relation to a storage box. Using skills learnt from trialling and testing they will then produce a high quality outcome that matches the designs requirements.

