

Senior Textiles Tech

From Year 9 upwards students can choose Textiles Technology as an option subject. The course gets students to think independently following the design process to solve issues based around fashion and textiles.

