

Whakairo Academy

The Whakairo course aims to introduce students to the craft of whakairo and will help them develop their understanding of Maori art techniques as well as associated tikanga and customary practices. students will gain practical knowledge alongside theory. Carved projects undertaken throughout the year include; pattern board, kōruru, patu and community project.

